CMHAMM Bulletin

Bulletin Number: CMHAMM 10-19

Distribution: QI, IPLT, Affiliation Compliance Committee, CEOs

Issued: September 21, 2010

Subject: Habilitation Supports Waiver (HSW)

Effective: September 21, 2010

CMH's Affected: CEI, Gratiot, Ionia, Manistee-Benzie, Newaygo

Related Policy (If Applicable): Affiliation Policy 2.0

Related Procedure (If Applicable): Affiliation Procedure 2.5, Affiliation Procedure 7.4

Purpose: To define an Affiliation wide procedure for the distribution of available waiver slots assigned to the PIHP by the Department of Community Health (DCH) that ensures CMHAMM Habilitation Supports Waiver (HSW) eligible consumers with the highest need receive the next available waiver slots regardless of where they reside within the Affiliation's 8-county region.

Announcement: CMHAMM Procedure 2.5 has been modified and formally approved by the CMHAMM Director of Affiliation Operations (DAO). All other previous versions of CMHAMM Procedure 2.5 are rescinded. For ease of reference, changes have been highlighted in red print in the attached document. It will be reviewed by the DAO on an annual basis (minimally) and recommended revisions will be considered by the DAO during an announced review period.

The PIHP will only consider as valid, revisions to this policy that have been communicated via the DAO to affiliates in CMHAMM Policy format with an accompanying bulletin (signed by the DAO).

This policy will remain in effect until the DAO formally communicates a change in its status.

Approved
