Issued: November 12, 2010

Subject: Consumer Advisory Council Membership

Effective: November 15, 2010

CMH's Affected: CEI, Gratiot, Ionia, Manistee-Benzie, Newaygo

Related Policy (If Applicable): Affiliation Policy 1.0

Related Procedure (If Applicable):

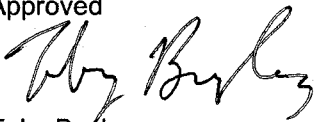

Purpose: To establish a process to appoint members to the Affiliation Consumer Advisory Council (ACAC) and to rotate membership so that there is a majority of experienced members on the ACAC at any point in time while providing regular opportunities for new members to join.

Announcement: CMHAMM Procedure 1.8 has been modified and formally approved by the CMHAMM Director of Affiliation Operations (DAO). All other previous versions of CMHAMM Procedure 1.8 are rescinded. For ease of reference, changes have been highlighted in red print and strikethroughs in the attached document. It will be reviewed by the DAO on an annual basis (minimally) and recommended revisions will be considered by the DAO during an announced review period.

The PIHP will only consider as valid, revisions to this policy that have been communicated via the DAO to affiliates in CMHAMM Policy format with an accompanying bulletin (signed by the DAO).

This policy will remain in effect until the DAO formally communicates a change in its status.

Approved
