CMHAMM Bulletin

Bulletin Number: CMHAMM 11-04

Distribution: Affiliation Compliance Committee, QI Workgroup, CEOs

Issued: March 23, 2011

Subject: Clinical Record Reviews

Effective: March 23, 2011

CMH's Affected: CEI, Gratiot, Ionia, Manistee-Benzie, Newaygo

Related Policy (If Applicable): Affiliation Policy 4.0

Related Procedure (If Applicable): Affiliation Procedure 4.5

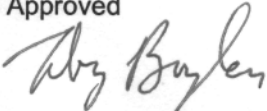

Purpose: To establish procedures that provide for the ongoing monitoring of the quality, appropriateness, and utilization of services provided by the Community Mental Health Service Providers (CMHSPs) throughout the Community Mental Health Affiliation of Mid Michigan (CMHAMM). The Clinical Record Reviews monitor and evaluate the quality of clinical documentation and assist in evaluating the quality of services provided to persons served.

Announcement: CMHAMM Procedure 4.5 has been modified and formally approved by the CMHAMM Director of Affiliation Operations (DAO). All other previous versions of CMHAMM Procedure 4.5 are rescinded. For ease of reference, changes have been highlighted in red print. It will be reviewed by the DAO on an annual basis (minimally) and recommended revisions will be considered by the DAO during an announced review period.

The PIHP will only consider as valid, revisions to this procedure that have been communicated via the DAO to affiliates in CMHAMM Policy format with an accompanying bulletin (signed by the DAO).

This procedure will remain in effect until the DAO formally communicates a change in its status.
